Let us be like the stage hand in a theatre of a small English town in which Henry Irving was playing.

In his earlier days Henry Irving played a part in a drama which called for a dark stage as the setting for the first act. In the dark and gloom he fought with an old earl and threw him heavily, and when the old man did not rise again after the loud thud of his fall, Irving would cry out: "Great Heavens! What have I done?"

One night while playing his part in the small English town a short distance from London a stage hand standing in the "flies" became so interested and wrapt up in the play that the scenes became to him realities, so when Irving had reached the critical climax, felling the earl to the ground with a blow of his fist and saying "Great Heavens! What have I done?" he was greatly startled to hear the stage hand shout in a loud voice: "Strike a match and we'll have a look."

Now let's strike a match and see what you have done. Have you subscribed to The Dispatch or have you not? Have you paid it up to date or in advance and given your votes to one of the contestants? If you haven't it is time to. Don't be a laggard. Be a "live wire." The world loves them and you won't lose anything by it. Everyone loves a cheerful giver—remember this. Think of what a world of pleasure calling up your favorite candidate and presenting her with your subscription will be. If a thing is worth doing at all it is worth doing well. Don't wait until she comes around to see you, but go and see her. That's the best way to do it because it's the right way.

THE ROAD TO WEALTH

One now-a-days hear lots about the opportunities presented to young people of training and education. This is a commercial age, one of great progress and advancement, but to grasp the opportunities that are constantly opening before one and to get in on the ground floor of things you must have a financial standing and backing of some kind.

How many are there who have not lost the opportunity of a life time for the lack of a few dollars? Everyone of us knows some one. One instance that illustrates this is as follows:

The Southern Pacific railway was building immense railroad shops at Salt Lake City, Utah, where two thousand men were to be employed in the construction of the railroad equipment. They offered the position of superintendent to a man long in their employ but there was a string tied to the position. The string was a cash bond of some $2000, half of to be advanced by the superintendent. There was hard times closely following the panic of 1896 and money was scarce and almost impossible to procure. The man, though he had had a fine position with the company for a number of years had not saved his salary and he could not raise the necessary thousand. The result was another man procured the position. Wouldn't it have been nice for him in this instance if he could have gone to the bank and withdrawn his savings account to advance the cash bond necessary and procure the position that was open to him?

The man who secured the position is now high up in railroad circles, is general manager of one of the largest railroad systems in the United States. This is simply a little incident of an opportunity lost through the lack of financial backing. This is a case repeated a thousand times a day. You must have money to make money. Save the pennies, as the old saying is, and the dollars will take care of themselves. A ten dollar bill put in the savings account every month at compound interest at the rate which the Security State bank pays, in 10 years time will be $20, and the ten dollar deposits which you have placed from month to month have increased accordingly. Money doubles itself every ten years. One who saves $1000 in five years time, in ten years is worth $2000; in fifteen, $3000; in twenty, $4000. It is not how much money you earn that makes you wealthy, but how much you save. Take this little lesson to heart. Don't put off starting that little savings account until tomorrow, but start today. The Dispatch is offering you a chance to start right through its contest. Enter your name today and win the $25 Savings Account which the Security State bank of Brainerd will give to the contestant who turns in the largest number of new yearly subscriptions before 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

AN OPPORTUNITY

There is a fine opportunity in Districts Two, Four and Five for new entrants for the district prizes. There are $85 in prizes to be given in each district, a $60 scholarship and a $25 watch. These are worth the best efforts of anyone to win and you can be the possessor of either one if you but have the desire and enter your name and let your friends know you are enrolled in the Dispatches Mammoth Contest, and the rest is easy.

The candidates in District 4, with one exception, are doing little or nothing. In other words they are asleep at the switch. Profit by their apathy. In Districts Two and Five the same conditions exist. Why not enter the contest today and take advantage of the opportunity the candidates in these districts are overlooking? (Continued on page four)

If Jupiter Were Inhabited.
Calculations as to the size required for human beings on the other planets vary widely, according to the basis of reckoning. According to those based upon the attraction of gravity, Jupiter should be peopled by pygmies of twenty-eight inches. Wolfius, on the other hand, argued that Goliath himself would be accounted decidedly undersized upon that planet. He worked from the feebleness of the sun's light there, which would demand that the pupil of the eye should be much more dilatible. Since the pupil stands in a constant proportion to the pall of the eye and that to the entire body, said Wolfius, a little calculation shows that an average Jovian must be nearly three feet seven inches tall—not quite four inches shorter than Og, king of Bashan, according to the measure of his bedstead given in Deuteronomy.

A Saving Scheme.

"Coeducation is a good thing. The boy gets his study and his courting finished simultaneously and is then ready for work."
"Just so. While the girl can save a lot of money by marrying in her graduation gown."—Exchange.

Socialists Name a Ticket.

Pierre, S. D., June 6.—The Socialists of the state have named a complete state ticket. The platform endorses the Western Federation of Miners and declares for equal suffrage.

COSTLY FIRE AT DULUTH

Damage Amounts to One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Duluth, June 6.—The thousands of people in the usual crowds on Superior street were treated to a $100,000 fire which completely gutted the old Bradley building, occupied by the Rathskeller cafe, the H. Knox Five and Ten-cent store and several offices. The fire started in the kitchen of the cafe from a defective gas range. It was the third blaze in the past nine weeks originating there.

Two firemen, William McLaughlin and John Cribbler, were overcome by smoke and had to be carried from the burning building.

Practically the entire fire fighting apparatus in the city was employed in combatting the blaze, which defied all efforts for three hours.

AVIATOR ROLLS TO FLY HERE

Man Who Made Record Channel Flight Will Try for Prizes.

New York, June 6.—Stimulated by the feats of Glenn H. Curtiss in flying from Albany to New York, aviation is the chief topic in every town, city and hamlet throughout the United States. Within three days prizes aggregating $150,000 have been offered for long distance flights, and every aviator in the country is enthusiastic over the recognition that has at last been given them.

C. S. Rolls of England, who flew across the English channel and back again, has telegraphed to New York, announcing that he would arrive in this country during this month and would enter the flight from New York to Chicago and St. Louis.

PUBLIC LAND BILL BEFORE THE SENATE

Measure Certain to Dissolve Party Lines.

Washington, June 6.—Conservation legislation in the senate and the postal savings bank bill in the house constitute the features of the congressional programme for the week. The general opinion is that each measure will be voted upon before Saturday night and thereupon will be sent to conference.

Party lines will be dissolved and new lines of progressiveness developed in the senate in connection with the public land withdrawal bill. Some of the Western members are preparing to make assaults upon the Roosevelt-Garfield administration of the public domain, especially as regards the blanket withdrawals of large areas. It is not improbable that this course will lead to some bitter criticism of the policies of the Taft-Ballinger administration of the land laws.

The discussion will arise over the consideration of the administration bill, which already has passed the house, to authorize the president to withdraw public lands for purposes of classification, for the protection of water power sites, for forest reserves and to prevent mineral lands from falling into the hands of monopolies.

Many Western members, notably Senators Warren and Clark of Wyoming and Heyburn and Borah of Idaho, Carter of Montana and Hughes of Colorado, express fear that the enactment of this measure would mark the return of the policy of "locking up" great tracts of land, so that the Western states might be deprived of the benefits which would accrue to them from their development.

On the other hand, the more radical programme carried out during the regime of former Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot is favored by such Western members as Senators Dixon of Montana, Flint and Perkins of California, Piles of Washington, Chamberlain and Bourne of Oregon, Smoot and Sutherland of Utah and others.

Administration leaders are committed to the conservation legislation advocated by President Taft and it is believed, therefore, that the house bill for the withdrawal of public lands for conservation purposes will be passed at an early date and that the measure will emerge successfully from conference.

His Profile.

Blank, a fat millionaire, was arranging to have his portrait painted. The length—three-quarters—was settled, and then the painter said:

"And shall the view be profile or full face, Mr. Blank?"

"Profile, by all means," was the reply. "The curve of the stomach gives a dignity to the figure."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

ONE OF ROBBER GANG CAPTURED

Wisconsin Sheriff Catches a Yeggman.

LOOT MERRILLAN POSTOFFICE

Bandits Blow Open the Safe and Obtain About One Thousand Dollars, Endeavor to Get Away on a Freight Train, but Officer Overtakes Them and Arrests One of the Five.

Black River Falls, Wis., June 6.—Five desperadoes blew open the safe in the postoffice at Merrillan, north of here on the Omaha railroad, about 2 o'clock in the morning. Their plunder, amounting to about $1,000, and one of their number are now in jail here.

The other four escaped by sawing their way through the side of a boxcar after an accompanying train crew had brought them, neatly boxed and locked up ready for delivery, up a railway spur within three miles of the county jail in this city. Sheriff Ben Lanning of Jackson county made his capture after a record breaking trip on a railroad tricycle to overtake the freight train.

The robbers to blow open the safe at Merrillan used high power explosives, probably nitroglycerin, in amounts sufficient to wreck the entire building and alarm the town. They made their way out of the city north, keeping off pursuers, however, at the point of guns. There they boarded a southbound freight train, rode back through Merrillan concealed in the boxcar in which they were riding.

Nevertheless, they were spotted by the train crew, who told the marshal at Merrillan, who in turn called up Sheriff Lanning at Black River Falls. The freight train bowled out of Merrillan, while the train crew gradually worked up nearer and nearer to the car in which the desperado gang was concealed. They locked the side door, booted the end openings and batted down the hatches on the roof.

When they reached Sheppard, Wis., a few miles east of here, they backed the train up the siding which runs past the depot at Black River Falls, the county seat and home of the sheriff.

Sheriff Overtakes Train.

Sheriff Lanning had missed the train and was running after it on a railroad tricycle, which had been pressed into service. Luckily he overtook the train just as the suspected men were seen emerging from a hole they had cut in the side of the boxcar. They had discovered they were being delivered into the hands of the enemy, and with a saw made their last effort for freedom.

Sheriff Lanning ran up the side of the cars toward the men. Two of them ran under the still moving cars and escaped on the other side. Two more made a break for the surrounding woods and swamps. The last one, a large Pennsylvania, was collared by the sheriff. At the command of the sheriff, one of the men, who was carrying a mail pouch, dropped his burden, which was found later to contain several packages of stamps and some money and other negotiables.

The sheriff brought his prisoner into Black River Falls and organized posses for the pursuit of the fugitives. Farmers and residents of Black River Falls and Sheppard are out with shotguns and dogs. It was thought for some time the fugitives had been surrounded in a clump of trees, but Sheriff Lanning said he believed they had escaped the posse and were seeking a way out of the country along one of the railroads.

The prisoner was searched in the jail here. He carried burglar tools, soap, files and other articles identified with the burglar and "yegg" profession. He said he was born in Pennsylvania, but had not been there for a number of years. He refuses to say anything regarding his alleged crime until he sees a lawyer.

QUARREL OVER HORSE DEAL

Followed by Stabbing Affray That May Prove Fatal.

Mandan, N. D., June 6.—A quarrel over the settlement of a horse deal may yet cost William Plum his life. Ira Chapman stabbed Plum in a fight in front of the postoffice at Flasher.

Plum received a knife wound in the back, a half-inch wide and two inches deep, and, owing to the vital portion of the body affected, there is serious doubt as to his recovery. The cut allowed the spinal serum to escape.

Some time ago Ira and Ola Chapman sold a horse to Plum, securing the unpaid balance by a mortgage on the horse, a buggy and a saddle. Later Plum is alleged to have sold the saddle to a third party without applying the proceeds on the balance due for the horse. When the three interested parties met at Flasher, a quarrel ensued, which soon resulted in blows. In the mixup the stabbing occurred.

Ira Chapman made his getaway in the excitement. Plum, after being stabbed, tried to follow Chapman, but had only gone about thirty feet when he fell to the ground unconscious from the loss of blood. The fighting men had been separated when the stabbing occurred, Chapman making an unexpected rush at Plum after bystanders had interfered. Up to that time Plum was getting the best of the fight.

MRS. ROOSEVELT.

Wife of Former President Anxious to Return Home.

ANXIOUS TO RETURN HOME

Mrs. Roosevelt Will Be Happy When She Gets Back.

London, June 6.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, who has shared the honors of Colonel Roosevelt abroad and who has been exalted to a degree that has felt to the honor of few American women, is delighted with the royal receptions given to her everywhere, but she is secretly counting the days when the statue of liberty breaks into view from the ship which will carry her back to America. She said so while she publicly thanked the people of Great Britain and the Continental capitals for many honors. Mrs. Roosevelt said that the part of the trip which she enjoyed most was the carriage drive with her husband over the route where they had spent their honeymoon years ago. She was also greatly interested in looking at the old church where she and Colonel Roosevelt were married in London. She said it had changed but very little. Mrs. Roosevelt came in for complimentary receptions without end.

To use the expression that was made famous by her husband, Mrs. Roosevelt is "delighted." She says her time has been taken up so greatly in attending elaborate affairs planned in her honor that she has had but little time to grow homesick, although she will feel very happy when she sees once again the shores of her native land.

"America for Americans always, and always especially for American women," said Mrs. Roosevelt.

ADMIT THAT MAINE IS NOW IN DOUBT

Conservative Leaders Fear Result of Election.

Portland, Me., June 6.—As the two big state conventions draw near—the Democratic on June 15 and the Republican on June 19—conservative leaders admit that this rock ribbed Republican state is in doubt.

The Democrats are hopeful of carrying the First and Second congressional districts and are working hard to elect their candidates to the next legislature, which must choose a successor to Senator Hale, who has announced his retirement.

At the Republican state convention Governor Fernald in all probability will be renominated by acclamation.

In the First district there is a bitter contest between Colonel Frederick Hale of Portland, Asher C. Hinds, parliamentary clerk in congress; Judge Edward C. Reynolds of South Portland and Richard Webb of Portland. In the caucuses already held Mr. Hinds leads.

The Republican candidates for the United States senate are former Assistant Justice of the Supreme Court Frederick A. Powers and former Governor William T. Cobb. It is claimed that Judge Powers' activity in opposing Senator Hale caused the latter to announce his retirement.

Before the Democratic convention at Augusta there will be two candidates seeking the gubernatorial nomination—O. Gardner of Rockland and Frederick W. Plaiside, mayor of Augusta. No Democratic candidates for senator have been named.

The high cost of living and alleged Republican extravagance are urged by Democrats as their chief issues of the campaign.

Roosevelt Homecoming Feature.

In the preparations for the festivities in New York city to mark the welcome of Theodore Roosevelt on his return to the United States on June 18 the persons whose business it is to look after the sick and wounded have not been idle. Women nurses on horseback will be a novel feature of the emergency service, as fast traveling is an important part of the work. They will be gowned in khaki. There will be fifty to sixty women on horse, and in New York city, where the bands are playing and the crowds are great, it is no small matter to manage a horse. But the women chosen are well able to undertake such a feat.

World Tour on a Motorcycle.

Leroy Hendricks, eighteen years old, son of Mayor A. R. Hendricks of Sterling, Ill., left the other day for a tour around the world on a motorcycle. He expects to earn his expenses by painting signs.

LIVELY FIGHT IN THE HOUSE

MINING COMPANY OBJECTS

Tax Levy of Minnesota Town Is Too High.

Hibbing, Minn., June 6.—The Scranton Iron Mining company is just a bit peeved at the incorporation of the village of Alice, in which it is a large property owner, and, in its behalf, Deputy Sheriff George Donahue served a writ of quo warranto on the village officers which requires them to appear before the supreme court June 23 and show by what right they hold office.

The inquiry will be practically for the purpose of determining why the recent incorporation of Alice should not be declared null and void and the officers ousted.

The petition upon which the writ was issued alleges that there are only forty-two voters in the village, and that, while the total amount of taxable property is only $1,600,412, the Scranton Iron Mining company, the petitioner, is assessed for $1,567,371 on the three forties which it owns.

This leaves but $33,000 worth of property assessed to others, and leaves, according to the mining company, in a position where it must pay $3.25 taxes for every dollar paid by the voters.

The village recently voted to spend about $100,000 for public improvements, bonding the corporation for the purpose, and the possibility of having to pay the largest amount did not appeal to the mine company.

In Hawaiian.

"No ke kohe ana i kokahi mea e Kaha i Pe'a Xma ke Kuea ma ka Kahu. Koho no hookahi."

The above is the cabalistic warning printed at the head of a specimen ballot from Hawaii submitted to congress in an election contest. It may be translated thus:

"To vote for a person make a cross (X) in the square at the right of his name. Vote for one."

This is one of the linguistic peculiarities Uncle Sam acquired when he began to be a world power.—New York Press.

Tries to Commit Suicide.

Minneapolis, June 6.—Following several weeks of ill health, during which he was often despondent, Charles Vandewarker, a former St. Paul boy, is said to have tried to end his life in a lodging house here. Vandewarker was found in his room with a bullet wound over the heart by two friends, who broke down the door to his room after hearing the shot. He is not expected to live.

Soldier Wounded.

Sturgis, S. D., June 6.—Private Fortney of the Fourth cavalry at Fort Meade was shot by an unknown party in Sturgis. The bullet entered his back and passed through his body. Fortney is now at the post hospital in a critical condition.

Expected to Occur on the Railroad Measure.

REGULARS ARE OPPOSED TO IT

Determined That the Bill Passed by the Senate Must Be Robbed of Some of Its Progressive-Democratic Amendments Before It Is Sent to President Taft for His Approval.

Washington, June 6.—All signs point to one of the liveliest fights of the session in the house when a motion is made to send the administration railroad bill to conference. The house and senate leaders have determined that the bill passed by the latter body must be robbed of some of its "progressive-democratic" amendments before it is to be sent to the president for approval. Accordingly the word has been given to all regulars to stand by and vote to send the bill to conference.

The plan to refer the bill to conference cannot be carried out without the assistance of the Democrats.

If the minority joins with the progressives in the house the senate bill will be accepted. Representative Champ Clark, the minority leader, said that until he had an opportunity to confer with the Democrats on the committee on interstate and foreign commerce he would be unable to say just what the attitude of his followers would be toward the motion to send the bill to conference.

Nearly all of the house progressives are determined to vote to accept the senate bill. They have been told by progressive senators that the senate bill is a pretty good one in the main and much better in all respects than any measure which would emerge from conference. It is pointed out by the progressive senators that Senators Elkins and Aldrich will be on the conference committee and that they are likely to dominate the situation. So the progressive senators have informed their party brethren in the house that if they want to make sure of good railroad legislation the way to do it is to accept the senate bill.

Will Stand by Leaders.

A number of Republican regulars, who are anxious to get back home as soon as possible, were talking about accepting the senate bill and opposing the motion to send it to conference. However, the regulars will forego their desire to get back to their districts and will stand by the leaders in their determination to have the bill referred to the conference committee.

The senate leaders are very much worked up over the possibility of the house accepting the senate bill. During the consideration of the measure in the senate a number of "progressive-democratic" amendments were accepted with the understanding that they would be dropped out in conference. The bare possibility that the senate bill may go through the house causes apprehension in the senate.

There are a number of amendments in that measure which are regarded as obnoxious by senate leaders. Among them is the long and short haul clause, upon which it was hoped to effect a compromise which would maintain present conditions pending an inquiry by the interstate commerce commission.

Another provision regarded by the senate regulars as objectionable is that prohibiting the issuance of an interloutory injunction in the matter of state railroad enactments by less than three federal judges instead of by one, as at present.

Still another senate amendment that it was hoped would be lost in conference is that placing the burden of proof as to the reasonableness of a rate upon the railroads instead of upon the shippers.

YOUTH COMMITS SUICIDE

Chooses Torturing Method to End His Life.

Winona, Minn., June 6.—John W. Fortner, eighteen-year-old member of the Salvation Army here until a few months ago, chose a torturing method of ending his life in a hotel here. He partly filled a four-ounce bottle with water and into it poured pain green. Of this liquid he sipped at regular intervals during the night until, in terrible pain and violently sick, he wrapped the poison in his undergarments and hurled it from the window. He was discovered early in the morning by the hotel proprietor, who realized the guest's serious condition.

The police and a physician were called, but before medical aid arrived the boy was dead. He suffered terribly before death relieved him.

Ill health is ascribed as the cause of suicide.

Cradles Hundreds of Years Ago.

In manuscripts of the ninth and tenth centuries we have pictures of cradles formed of part of a tree trunk dug out, with holes bored through the sides for the passage of straps intended to tie the baby down in its bed. These dugout cradles are still common in modern Greece. When we come to consult the manuscripts and bag-reliefs of the fifteenth century we notice that the cradles are no longer mere baskets or beds on rockers, but little swinging beds suspended between two pillars.

THE EAGLE WILL SCREAM ON FOURTH

Trades & Labor Assembly Meets Wednesday and Makes Preliminary Arrangements

WILL CELEBRATE IN LUM PARK

The Assembly Will Conduct Things on a Better and Larger Scale Than Last Year

The glorious Fourth will be appropriately celebrated in Brainerd this year, the celebration being conducted under the auspices of the Trades & Labor Assembly at Lum Park.

John M. Taylor, president of the assembly has kindly given The Dispatch a short account of the proceedings taken by the assembly to properly celebrate the national holiday.

The assembly met last Wednesday evening and an executive committee was appointed consisting of John F. Elkins, Roy Smart, Jacob Kaupp, John M. Taylor and Richard Ilse.

The executive committee met on Thursday evening and selected sub-committees which will take charge of all the branches of the work necessary to make this an attractive and successful celebration. The chairman of the various sub-committees will choose their assistants. The chairmen are as follows:

Sports—John M. Taylor.
Grounds—Richard Ilse.
Transportation—John F. Elkins.
Refreshments—Jacob Kaupp.
Dance—Roy Smart.
Printing and other arrangements—Executive committee.

The boat club will act in conjunction with the assembly in transporting passengers and will give the assembly 40 per cent of its receipts. The assembly has had the experience of last year when the transportation facilities were woefully inadequate and so there will be no trouble in this regard this year. There are enough extra boats in commission now to accommodate 175 more people. Mayo's boat carries 75, Gumar's boat 100, Mideley's boat 40, Wilson's launch 30, and with the other launches on hand they will certainly be able to take care of a crowd. The executive committee will confer with Mr. W. H. Gemmell, manager of the Minnesota & International railway to see if the necessary service can be secured to haul passengers from the N. P. depot to the M. & I. bridge. From the bridge the passengers will be transported by boat to Lum Park.

An elaborate program of speaking, hand music, sports, dancing and the other features necessary to make a good celebration will be announced in the Daily Dispatch as soon as formulated.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Rev. Father O'Mahoney Preached Baccalaureate Sermon to Class of 1910 Sunday

The high school class of 1910 met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, 213 North Ninth street Sunday afternoon and marched in a body to St. Francis Catholic church where Rev. Father O'Mahoney delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

In the course of his eloquent sermon Rev. Father O'Mahoney spoke to the class members of their duty to God, to their neighbors, and to themselves.

The church was filled with friends and relatives of the graduating class, their superintendent, principal and teachers.

ONE WEEK MISSION

Will be Given by the Fathers of the Congregation of Missions Commencing June 5th

A mission of one week will be given by the Fathers of the Congregation of Missions in St. Francis church beginning Sunday, June 5th at 10:30 a. m., and closing Sunday, June 12th at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Father O'Mahoney, pastor of St. Francis church kindly gave the Dispatch the order of exercises. On Sunday, June 5th the opening sermon of mission was preached at high mass, 10:30 a. m. In the evening at 7:30 was the rosary, sermon and benediction.

On week days there will be mass at 9 o'clock in the morning; a mass and half hour instruction at 8 o'clock in the morning; and rosary sermon and benediction of the blessed sacrament at half past seven in the evening. In addition there will be instructions for the children at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Rev. Father F. X. McCabe, C. M., and Rev. Father M. G. Hanley, C. M. Vincenson Fathers of St. Louis, Mo., assisted by Rev. Father O'Mahoney, pastor of St. Francis church, have charge of the mission. There was a large Sunday attendance. The five o'clock mass which is always a good criterion to judge the success of any mission was largely attended, as well as the eight o'clock mass this morning.

Rev. Fathers McCabe and Hanley expressed themselves as well pleased. They arrived Saturday from Bovey, where they concluded a week's mission. Previously they were at Two Harbors and Duluth. Next week they will go to West Duluth and thence to International Falls and Crookston.

This is their first visit in Brainerd and they said they were happy to see a beautiful city like Brainerd with such pleasant surroundings and especially gratified to meet the large congregation which St. Francis church is proud to possess.

LITTLE BOY LOST AT DEERWOOD

Anton Oberg's Four Year Old Son Lost All Night in Woods

HUNDREDS JOIN IN THE SEARCH

Little Fellow Walks Six Miles in Darkness—Found in Morning at Cuyuna

Anton Oberg's four year old son was lost in the woods north of Deerwood Sunday afternoon.

Searching parties were immediately formed and the woods were scoured in all directions. All the available men and boys in the village joined in the search. Monday morning several of the shafts of the Rogers-Brown Ore Co. closed down so as to permit the miners to join in the search.

Early in the morning the little boy was found at Cuyuna, safe and sound. The distance from Deerwood to Cuyuna by road is about four miles, so the sturdy little man probably has at least six miles to his credit to cover his weary tramp through the woods and underbrush. The boy asserts he did not sleep but kept walking all the time. There was general rejoicing in Deerwood when he was brought back to town.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

John E. Cullen, Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cullen, Engaged to Miss Orr of Washington

A Spokane, Wash., paper has the following mention of a Brainerd boy, John E. Cullen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cullen:

"Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Orr, of E1505 Gordon avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bessie, and John E. Cullen, of Hilliard."

"While no date has yet been chosen for the wedding, it will take place in June and at the home of the parents of the bride-to-be. "Mr. Orr is president of the Hilliard Lumber Co., and he and his family are well known there as well as in Spokane."

Large Auto Party

Five automobiles came up from Little Falls Sunday and the party toured through the country east of the city and visited Mille Lacs lake. Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wetzel and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ryan were in the pilot car.

R. L. Palmer and son and H. E. Manning were in the second car. The occupants of the third car were Barney Burton, the Little Falls clothier, and friends.

The fourth car had as occupants Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Kallher.

The fifth car had Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Martin and friends.

We Reorganize Our Juvenile Embroidery Classes Tomorrow

Beginning tomorrow, Tuesday, June 7, we will give free instruction to the young ladies desiring to learn needle painting. We have a competent instructor and we will gladly instruct any young lady who may come, absolutely free, if she purchases her materials of us.

We have a nice lot of material for her to select from. This is a splendid manner for the young woman to employ her time during the summer season and the cost is very little. Send the young lady out tomorrow.

Asphelm-Zodrow

Frederick Oscar Asphelm and Dorothy Evelyn Zodrow were married on Saturday afternoon, June 4, 1910, at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. A. G. Trommald, 520 North Seventh street, the Rev. C. Hougstad, of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church officiating.

The bride was attired in a hand some gown of white Japanese silk in princess style. The bridesmaid was Miss Georgia Clark and the best man was William Zodrow.

The happy couple left for the home of the bride in Oak Lawn township where a reception was held in the evening to which all their friends and neighbors were invited. They received many handsome and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Asphelm will go to housekeeping at once in the handsome cottage the groom has built on the corner of Fir and 10th streets. Their many friends wish them all possible happiness and prosperity.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Donovan-Dougan Nuptials June 18.

The Minneapolis Journal of Sunday states:—"Invitations were issued Friday by Mrs. Hedley Vicens Dougan for the marriage of her daughter, Alice, to Percy Williams Donovan of Brainerd. Several hundred guests will witness the ceremony, which is to be performed at 8 o'clock at Trinity Baptist church, June 18. Dr. L. A. Crandall will officiate. Miss Dougan has chosen Miss Harriet Armstrong of St. Paul for her maid of honor and only attendant. Only the members of the family will be present at the informal reception following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, 1932 Aldrich avenue. S. Mr. Donovan and his bride will live in Brainerd."

Broiled Caterpillar.
Fancy eating caterpillars for dinner? The very thought is enough to upset one, yet among the natives of Rhodesia caterpillars are greatly esteemed as an article of diet. Only the tough, hairy skins are used, these being placed in the ashes of a wood fire, where they shrink and blacken. This particular kind of caterpillar is found in considerable numbers throughout the country. Often an army of them may be seen crawling up a tree trunk, each caterpillar touching its predecessor. SPECULATION IN LAND THE CAUSE

Expansion of Loans by Banks in the Middle West.

OFFICIALS ARE APPREHENSIVE

Those of the Treasury Department Do Not Look With Favor Upon the Situation—Step Taken to Check What Appears to Be a Tendency on the Part of Banks to Indulge Too Freely in Loans Secured by Farm Mortgages.

Washington, June 6.—The wave of land speculation which is sweeping through the Middle West, accompanied by a sudden expansion of bank loans, and a large accumulation of real estate mortgages by national banks, has somewhat aroused the apprehension of the treasury department. Steps have been taken to check what seems to be a tendency on the part of the banks to indulge too freely in loans secured by farm mortgages.

The controller of the currency has instructed national bank examiners to pay special attention to this matter. A number of reports have been submitted during the past few weeks which show that banks in the Middle Western section have acquired what might ordinarily be considered a dangerously large amount of "slow" loans. Investigations which have been made in certain cases have brought out practically the same set of facts. They show that there has been great activity of late in the buying and selling of farm lands in Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska and adjoining states.

Forced to Take Mortgages.
As a result of these sales and the incidental expansion in loans many banks have been forced to take over farm mortgages in order to protect themselves. It is stated that the volume of paper of this character now carried by the banks is greater than ever before.

Apparently there is no suspicion in the office of the controller that the banks have acquired real estate paper through any attempt to evade the law. The national bank act prohibits national banks from making loans on real estate or the stocks of any corporation. However, the law permits a bank to accept real estate mortgages in order to protect itself on debts previously contracted. It seems that the "slow" loans in question have resulted in the banks obtaining most of their present farm mortgages.

There has been an enormous increase in the value of farm lands in the Middle West during the past few years. As a result many farmers have sold their holdings and migrated to Canada. The movement has been from states like Ohio and Indiana across the Mississippi into Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas. The farmers of the states west of the Mississippi are in turn going into Canada, where good wheat lands may be bought at prices from $15 an acre up.

Scared Into Sound Health.
Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress." For sale by all druggists. mwf

The Conservation of Nature's Resources
Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Pudlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late." For sale by all druggists. mwf

"O. HENRY" IS DEAD.

Story Writer Fails to Rally After an Operation.

NOTED STORY WRITER DEAD

"O. Henry" Fails to Rally After an Operation.

New York, June 6.—William Sydney Porter, better known under his pen name of "O. Henry," writer of short stories, died at Polytechnic hospital. He underwent an operation last Friday and never rallied. The nature of his ailment was not made known. Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was summoned by telegraph, but did not arrive here until after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Texas forty-six years ago and began his journalistic career on the Houston Post. Before that he had been a cowboy, sheep herder and druggist and an extensive traveler.

Deerwood, Minnesota, April 13, 1910. Notice is hereby given that a meeting of a majority of the directors of the Cuyuna State Bank of Deerwood, which meeting was especially called for the purpose of taking action upon the proposition to liquidate the said corporation, it was resolved by vote of the foregoing directors owning 138 shares out of the total of 180 shares of the capital stock of said bank, to put the Cuyuna State Bank of Deerwood into voluntary liquidation. This action was later ratified by the majority of the stockholders of date April 2nd.

No deposits will be received after April 2nd. All depositors and other creditors, if any, are requested to present their claims for payment. Checks on the bank made by depositors against their accounts will be honored whenever presented. Depositors should bring in their pass books to be balanced. By order of the Board of Directors, (Corporate Seal) H. J. ERNST, State of Minnesota, Department of Banking, St. Paul, April 12th, 1910. The action of the stockholders of the Cuyuna State Bank of Deerwood, in voting to put said bank into voluntary liquidation is hereby approved by this Department. (Seal) J. B. GALARNEAULT, Superintendent of Banks.
